The Blood of Jesus Cleanses and Restores Homes

Protecting the boundary of the home is about more than just locking your doors and checking your security cameras and alarm systems every night. It's about making sure there hasn't been a silent infiltration by the enemy who seeks only to steal, kill and destroy. (John 10:10)

When you make the Lord your boundary, you remain in Him. (John 15:4-9) The atmosphere inside of that boundary will be intolerant to the ways of the wicked. This includes being able to discern and confront deception or manipulation tactics.

Traffickers get their tactics straight from the devil, who operates in deception. When the serpent spoke to Eve, what she should have done was taken that conversation to the Lord, and let Him be her standard for measuring whether what was being said was good or not. Eve was completely innocent before falling into the schemes of the evil one. So were the children who have been contacted by traffickers or groomers through online platforms, where a lot of grooming takes place. Before they know it, they find themselves tangled in something they can't seem to get out of, which unfortunately can lead to a life of being trafficked.

2 Corinthians 2:11 tells us not to be ignorant of the devil's schemes. This includes the grooming tactics that many times happen under parents' noses, especially when the child has their own device that is capable of internet access. Even if the doors are locked at night, what is to stop those people from talking to the children who have access to their devices, especially given that many groomers have taught their targets how to override parental controls?

Make the Lord your family's boundary and the devil will not be capable of remaining where he has been hiding. Teach your child how to discern the tactics of the enemy and they will be able to guard themselves against him. (Proverbs 22:6)

The Lord is cleaning house and revealing areas where the enemy has been hiding in plain sight. But it is our job to follow through with eliminating the things that we inadvertently allowed to slip in the first time. Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life (John 14:6) and it is by the Blood Covenant of Jesus Christ that the devil has been defeated. It's time to walk in our authority.

“Hide me from the secret plots of the wicked, from the throng of evil doers,” - Psalm 64:2 ESV

If you have not received salvation through Jesus Christ and you want to, say the following prayer:

Lord God, I confess that I am a sinner. I confess that I need Your Son, Jesus. Please forgive me in His name. Lord Jesus, I believe You died for me and that You are alive and listening to me now. I now turn from my sins and welcome You into my heart. Come and take control of my life. Make me the kind of person You want me to be. Now, fill me with Your Holy Spirit, who will show me how to live for You. I acknowledge You before men as my Savior and my Lord.

Thank you for forgiving me, Lord. I receive forgiveness, in Jesus' name, Amen!
